EPILOGUE 172

As we think back

upon our childhood,

We reflect on the times remembered and joys shared.

The friendships we forged

will remain forever
in our memories

Our heroes, mentors, families and teachers helped to shape

the time we spent

living, loving, and learning.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. MARGARET "PEPPY" KLEIN

Mrs. Klein played many roles in the West Boylston school system. Not only was she an important part of the School Committee and Parent Advisory Board, but she became a cherished friend to the people of West Boylston. She valued student opinions and strived to help when she could. Mrs. Klein attended student activities for years, including soccer games, senior plays, spring musicals, and football games. She worked for many committees and charitable organizations. Those who worked beside her were always impressed with her dedication and sense of commitment. When working toward a goal, she never left a stone unturned or a project unfinished. Mrs. Klein will be fondly remembered and missed by everyone she touched.

"To laugh often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty; to find the best in others; to leave the world a little bit better — whether by a healthy child, a garden patch, or a redeemed social condition; to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is to have succeeded."

— Ralph Waldo Emerson

IN APPRECIATION MRS. GRUSZKA

INGREDIENTS: 2 C. sweetness, Combine with 1 T. of love. Stir in loyalty, spirit, and support with patience, reason, and consideration. Mix well. Add 1/4 heaping tsp. of encouragement and blend with a willingness to help.

Mrs. Gruszka, our teacher and friend, is someone we will always remember as a special person of our high school years. As our class advisor, Mrs. "G" put in a lot of time and effort to see that the class of 1989 always reigned on top — class meetings, fundraisers, the prom, play competitions, and homecoming week. As a teacher she taught us a wide range of things from changing a baby's diaper to cooking a Thanksgiving feast. As a friend, she was an excellent listener and a wise advice giver. The class of 1989 deeply appreciates all that Mrs. Gruszka has contributed. Her ability to give of herself made the class of 1989 the best. We thank you Mrs. Gruszka from the bottom of our hearts. What you have done for us will always be a part of our fond memories. We will miss you very much.

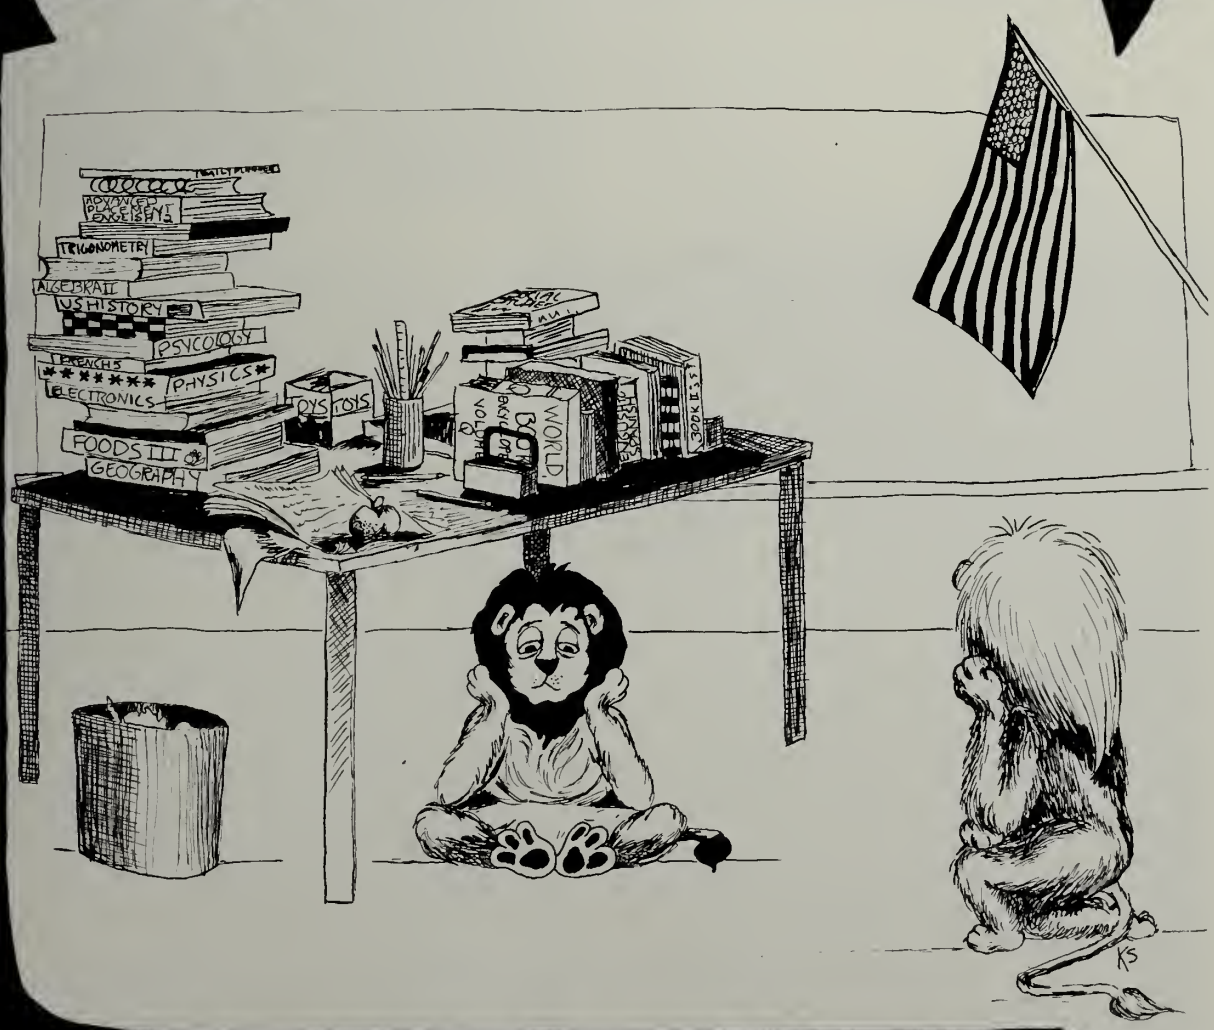
Love,
the Class of 1989

THE MUSIC MAN

As music teacher for thirty years, Mr. Herbert Maynard has embodied the spirit of the lion. His firm belief in educating a well-rounded person has helped his students to believe in themselves, in the school, and in their ability to make great things happen. He has strived, and succeeded, in instilling pride and positive thinking in his students by teaching the whole student, not just the musician. He has also taught his students to live for the present and to look toward the future with hope and excitement.

This year will be his last as a teacher. Mr. Maynard will be leaving the teaching profession to explore other fields. He will long be remembered for his dedication and many contributions: conducting the chorus and football, concert, and prize-winning stage bands; coaching the tennis team, and organizing the skiing program. Even more importantly, though, Mr. Maynard will be remembered for his success in imparting his wisdom and pride to many students — musician and non-musician alike. He has been a role model for both students and the faculty, and his energy and enthusiasm will be missed by all.

HEAVY THINKING



PRINCIPAL
DR. MARK R. MASTERSON

Many will remember you as the "Super Bowl Class". Few will recognize that you were also the team that almost won the Sportmanship Award when the competition included almost seventy central Massachusetts teams. I am most impressed by the diversity of your strengths. You have carried the yearbook, the senior play, and a number of teams. You are academically aggressive and competent; you have won many art and music awards. Several of you have applied to some of the most competitive schools in the country and have every reason to expect to be accepted. As a class you have made the most of your educational opportunities. My most enjoyable memory of you to date is being in the play "Get Smart" with you. Best wishes for continued happiness and success.

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL
DR. PAULA BURKE-UCHE

I think of each one of you and your futures, hoping that you will find joy and true fulfillment in the careers you choose. I wish you a life long discovery of your talents, interests and the genius that is unique to each one of you. Everyone is a star. May life bring each of you the love, friends, education and opportunities to enable you to be your true selves. I wish each of you the love spoken of in Corinthians I, 13:

If I speak in the tongues of men and angels, but have not love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing.

Love is patient and kind; love is not jealous or boastful; it is not arrogant or rude; Love does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrong but rejoices in the right. Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

SUPERINTENDENT
LEO J. SULLIVAN

The Class of 1989 will long be remembered as one of the most impressive groups of young people ever to graduate from West Boylston Jr.-Sr. High School.

While obvious public achievements such as the Super Bowl victory have received much public acclaim, it is your less obvious qualities and talents in which we who know you take the most pride.

As a class, you have long enjoyed a reputation for intelligence, industry, and motivation. More importantly, you have been respected for your sensitivity and genuine concern for others.

As you leave us for the final time, I would like you to consider that you have been the recipients of many intangible gifts during your eighteen years. You have benefitted from loving parents, a supportive community, and concerned teachers. You have been guided, assisted, and encouraged each step along the way.

There is an old saying, "From those to whom much is given, much is expected". We expect and hope that in the years ahead you will try hard to give back to others as much as you have received.

Good luck, Class of '89!

LOOK WHAT'S HAPPENING

FALL MEMORIES

As we continue our education from West Boylston Junior-Senior High School to the world beyond, the memories of the place where we have grown will remain vivid. Local scenes such as these will remind us of the countless times we walked the sidewalk toward school, viewed the art work of the senior class on the traditional lion mascot in front of the school, or slid down the slide at Major Edwards Elementary School. It is the town of West Boylston itself as well as the schooling we received here which has helped to shape us into the people we have become.

AMERICAN

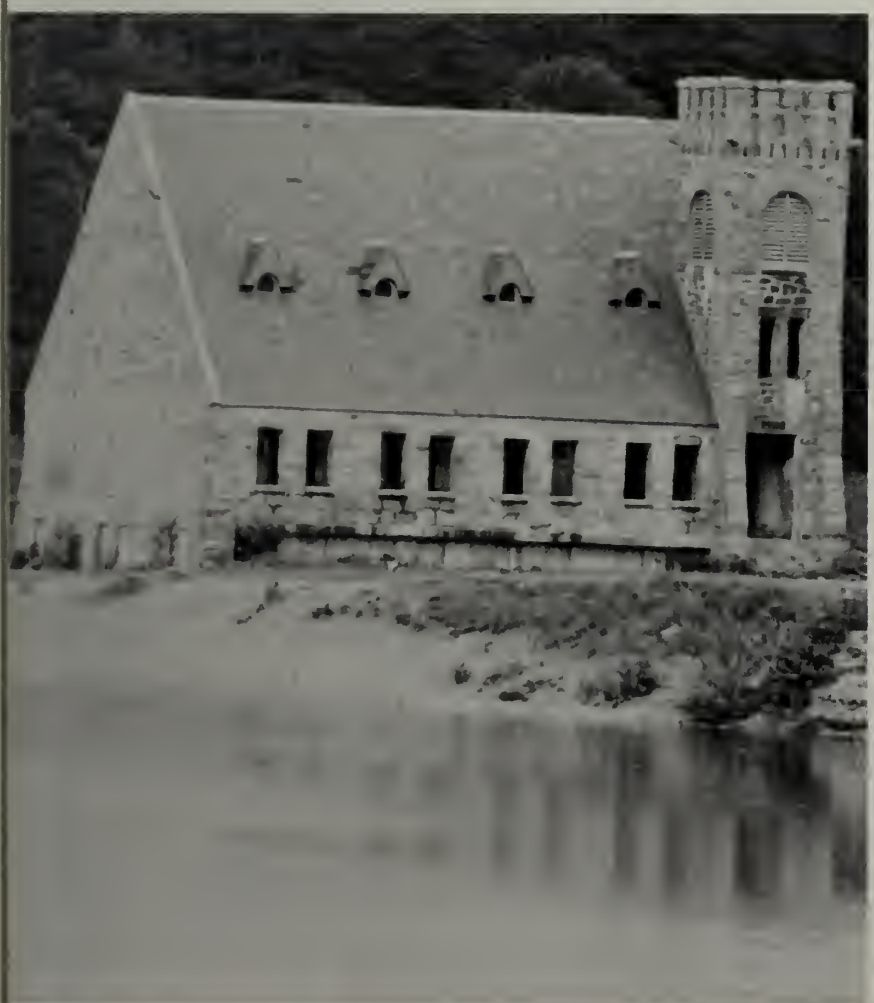
WEST BOYLSTON OLD AND NEW

The town of West Boylston is undergoing numerous changes. Shopping areas such as the Wachusett Plaza and Downtown Crossing are sprouting up and taking over some of the country land. Land bordering Route 12 is being cleared to make room for a local McDonald's. These scenes sharply contrast the traditional old-time West Boylston landmarks such as the Old Stone Church and the Beaman Memorial Library. In a few years, West Boylston is projected to become more busy with increased traffic due to the high concentration of shopping centers. However, the town will never lose its sense of history.



HOMECOMING

Homecoming week was filled with fun and excitement for all. Each day had a different theme, ending with the traditional Blue and White Day. Students in grades nine through twelve showed their spirit by wearing costumes representing the theme of the day (including Jodie Blake and Megan Cleary as Tarzan and Jane and students wearing clashing outfits for Clash Day) and competing in various events including an obstacle course, jello-eating contest, and a lip-sync competition. The seniors proved they had the most spirit by ending the week with the most points.

The Homecoming Court was announced by Bessie Kokalis during the pep rally on Friday afternoon, September 23, 1988. The Court was made up of those girls who showed the most spirit during the week. It included seniors Jodie Blake and Megan Cleary, juniors Stephanie Pasquale and Lisa Lenkarski, sophomores Sue Priestley and Molly Mahoney, and freshmen Erin Cleary and Sara Lindberg. The football team won its game on Friday night, a great start to a winning season. The fun-filled week ended with the Homecoming Dance. Jodie Blake was crowned Homecoming Queen.

JUNIOR PROM

Our Junior Prom, "Hold on to the Night," was held on May 27, 1988. Many of us have memories of the spreading rumors: "Who do you think he'll ask?" "I bet you five dollars she'll make the Court." Enthusiasm mounted as the date drew closer and closer, with the girls buying their gowns and the guys ordering their tuxedos. When the day finally arrived, our anticipation peaked. A reception was held in the school cafeteria which was decorated with a colorful mural that doubled as a backdrop for pictures.

After spending some time visiting with friends and family, the couples drove to Indian Meadows Country Club in Westboro to fulfill their dreams and to create memories. At 10:00 Kim Holmes was crowned Prom Queen, and her Court was selected: Amy Willoughby, Alisa Curé, Lori Jackson, Lisa Langhill, Melissa Salluce, and Missy Loughlin. After the dancing, the couples dispersed to different parties around town to end the perfect evening.

QUEBEC: "JE ME SOUVIENS"

On October 22, 1988, a dreary Saturday morning, the French Club embarked on what may have been the last Quebec trip of the high school. Knowing this, the eager group of twenty-five young francophones made the most of every moment of the four day excursion. The eight hour bus ride was tiresome, but Charlie, the bus driver, along with the four chaperons, kept the students' spirits high.

Some highlights of the trip included an exquisite breakfast at the Chateau Frontenac, a ferry ride on the Saint Lawrence River, a historic tour of the Citadelle, a horse-drawn caleche ride, an informative day at a French-Canadian school, as well as numerous typical French dinners. For those four days, the students and chaperons were like one big family. Although they all wished it could have lasted longer, everyone breathed a slight sigh of relief when Charlie pulled into the driveway of W.B.H.S.

IN THE BACKFIELD

FANCY FOOTWORK

The varsity soccer team had a fun season, finishing with a record of 5-10-2. The leading seniors: Leon and Lisa Hovsepian, Scott Wilson, Chris Rotti, Jay Brunetta, and Jeff Harris will surely be missed next year. The team is left to the skilled Pat McEnaney, Scott Atchue, David Hubbard, Pete Lancette, and the rest of the underclassmen.

GO FOR THE GOAL

The girl's soccer team enjoyed a winning season, 7-4-3. Sheri Newton and Michelle Aubrey, the senior co-captains,led the team in talent and support. Next year, the responsibility will fall with the skilled defensewoman Peggy Kavanagh. The remainder of the team is made up of primarily the junior high. Overall, the team did a remarkable job against the bigger, more experienced teams such as Shrewsbury. Christina Bebas, Cori Howland, and Kerri Hubbard show great potential. Mr. Ekblomis looking forward to the year after next because there will be enough people and talent to field a varsity team.

CROSS COUNTRY

"Despite our disappointing record, the runners all deserve much respect and credit for their dedication." — Coach McGrath. The team was led by co-captains Mike Menard and Dave Goyette. Lance Watkins (junior) had some very strong showings as well as Jason Shaw, Rob Fellrath, and Jason Kavanagh. Eric Weir, Matt Scales, Jason Lashanian, Michele Neary, Amy Gaitane, and Becky Gill all ran well.

Although the field hockey team did not enjoy a winning season, Coach Beverly Schofield was satisfied with her team's efforts. "We had an unusual situation whereby seniors and seventh graders alike were on the same squad. The seniors became role models for the younger athletes." Headed by co-captains Robin Haddad and Beth Johnson, the team ended the season with a record of 4-6-3. Other seniors include Cheryl C., Alisa C., Cara H., Tara K., Jen R., Jenny R., Melissa M., Pam S., and Katie S. Next year Coach Scholfield hopes to round up enough young talent to establish a team and keep the traditions of sticks, "Hole in the Bucket," and the course, as well as the game of field hockey itself, alive in West Boylston.

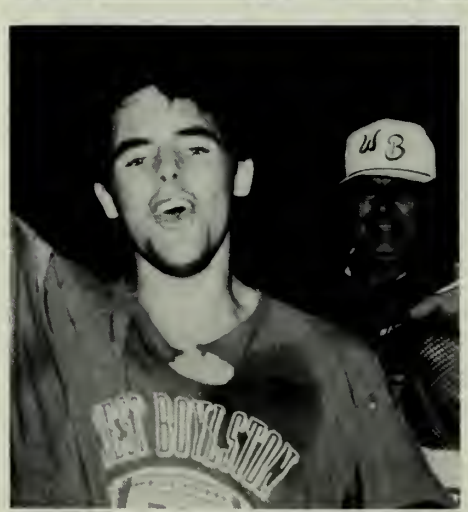
Clockwise: Coach Schofield plots the game's strategy; Cara goes for the goal; Jen Ryan winds up to clear the ball; Jen Robinson gets ready for the steal.

SUPER SEASON



The football team had a remarkable season, winning the Division III Superbowl and Southern Worcester County League. The tri-captains, Bob Shea, Chuck Carelli, and Joel Carelli led the team to an invincible season. Despite being the smallest public school in the state to still have a football team, the Lions remained undefeated to finish the season with a perfect record of 11-0. Coach Priestley says, "It was a year that we were hoping for, and our dreams came true."

SUPER SIDELINERS

This year's cheerleading squad enjoyed supporting the championship Lions' team. It was another year of difficult weather conditions that they endured without complaint. Their moral support and school spirit carried over to the fans and surely spurred the Lions to their victorious season.

WINTER SPIRITS

Although this year's basketball cheerleading team was small, it still had a lot of spirit and pep. The cheerleaders consisted of four seniors: Tina Belsito, Kim Holmes, Lori Jackson, and Carol Webb. Michelle Greene and Jen Gleason (juniors) and Amy Lavoie (a sophomore), also cheered. Even though the basketball team did not have a winning season, the cheerleaders were always on the sidelines, cheering them on. These girls also performed routines during halftime, time-outs and in between quarters. Constructing mounts with only seven people was difficult, but they did a great job designing a variety of impressive smaller mounts. Overall, the cheerleaders, under the direction of Coach Virginia Ekblom, had a successful season, in keeping the spirits of the fans and the players high.

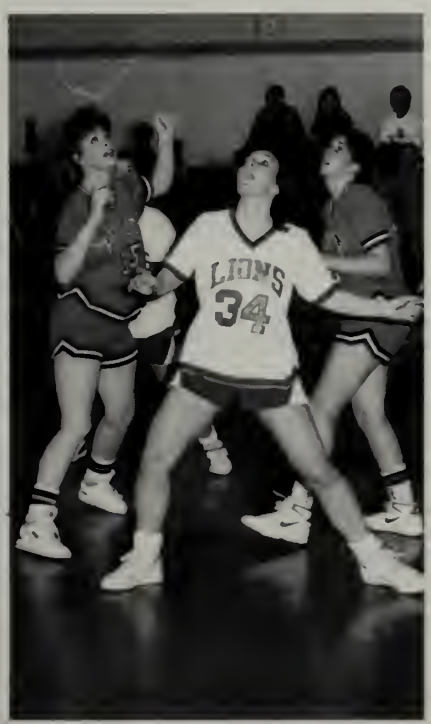
Alisa Cure drives for a score.



Bessie Kokalis is surrounded by Prouty.

The senior-studded girls' varsity basketball team finished the season with a successful 10-8 record. Cheryl Casey, Alisa Cure, Lisa Hovsepian, Bessie Kokalis, Sheri Newton, Pam Saro, and Katie Smith all provided senior leadership. Juniors Colleen Kelly and Jen Desmarais and eighth grade sensation Meri Galena provided crucial rebounding, scoring, and ballhandling. Although Lisa Hovsepian became the first West Boylston girl to score 1000 points,it was the team unification which led to their winning record. The seniors will surely be missed next year as Coach Priestley will face the task of rebuilding the program with underclassmen.

Far right: Players prepare to pounce for the rebound as Dave Goyette displays his free throw form. Right: Joel Carelli takes a jumper.

REBOUNDING

The boys' varsity basketball team had a tough beginning but concluded with a record of 6-11. Sicknesses and two injuries cost the Lions some close games until they were at full strength. However, returning seniors Dave Goyette, Chuck Carelli, Joel Carelli, Tom Sambito, Jeff Lindberg, Mark Chila, John Mattison, and Scott Lavoie proved they still had some fight left in them. The team learned from their mistakes with grueling practices and guidance from Coach Bonci. Dave Goyette was the leading scorer in the SWCL with 360 points.

Although the girls' team lacked some experience, they were strong contenders in the league. Amy Gaitane, Claudia Copeland, Cori Howland, Karen Messinger, and Christina Bebas were excellent players. They finished their season with a 5-10 record, but Coach Garafoli is looking ahead. In only a couple of years they will have developed and refined their skills, and will definitely have the talent for championship seasons.

The JV Boys' Basketball record was 3-14 this year, but despite a tough season there were some bright spots. Freshman Matt Gaitane lead the team in scoring with a 15 point average. Sophomore Dave Cure did a fine job rebounding on both sides of the floor, and he was second on the team in scoring.

The illustrious Maxwell Smart, David Sherwin, and the beautiful Agent 99, Jennifer Forrest, foiled the evil KAOS plot to take over the world in "Get Smart", this year's senior play. This action-packed comedy included such characters as Mr. Big, the head of KAOS, played by Chris Rotti, the Chief, Control's leader, portrayed by David Goyette; and Princess Ingrid, the damsel in distress, acted by Jennifer Weldon. The rest of the cast was composed of a wide range of talented, invaluable seniors with help from some underclassmen. The play, student directed by Evalyn Gambaccini and Nicole Benoit, was immensely successful and enjoyed by all.

JUNIOR HIGH GRADS

The current freshman class of near sixty students graduated on June 23, 1988. The valedictorian and salutatorian were Courtney Cope and Edward Kooyomjian respectively. During the ceremony, the Junior National Honor Society members received their stolls, and students received awards for excellence in a variety of fields. The ceremony also gave the students a last chance to be together before they moved on to private schools.

Now that we have to leave these special people

and places behind,

we can only be hopeful

and imagine what the future holds.

Doors will open on a bright tomorrow.

We can look ahead

to a promising future

and dream.
